

GUIDANCE TO ASSIST COMPETENT AUTHORITIES IN THE IMPLEMENTATION OF THE CAPE TOWN AGREEMENT OF 2012 (THE AGREEMENT)

Section 1 General aspects

1.1 Introduction

1.2 Purpose

1.3 Scope

1.4 Initial requirements

1.5 Port State control

1.6 Casualties to fishing vessels

Section 2 Status of the Cape Town Agreement of 2012

2.1 Situation on the entry into force of the Agreement.

2.2 Interpretation and application of the 1993 Torremolinos Protocol

2.3 Benefits of the entry into force of the Agreement.

2.4 Measures to promote the ratification of the Agreement.

2.5 Supportive tools to facilitate the entry into force.

Section 3 Application, exceptions and equivalents¹ (Regulations I/1-5)

Section 4 Surveys and certificates (Regulations I/6-17)

Section 5 Construction, watertight integrity and equipment (Chapter II)

Section 6 Stability and associated seaworthiness (Chapter III)

Section 7 Machinery and electric installations and periodically unattended machinery spaces (Chapter IV)

Section 8 Fire protection, fire detection, fire extinction and fire fighting (Chapter V)

Section 9 Protection of the crew (Chapter VI)

Section 10 Life-saving appliances and arrangements (Chapter VII)

Section 11 Emergency procedures, musters and drills (Chapter VIII)

Section 12 Radiocommunications (Chapter IX)

Section 13 Shipborne navigational equipment and arrangements (Chapter X)

Section 14 Implementation of the Arrangement and fishing industry

Section 15 Implementation of the Agreement and human element

Section 16 Promotion of technical cooperation and provision of technical assistance

¹ From section 3 to 16 the implementation matrix would be used

Annexes

Annex 1 Flag State survey and inspection system

Annex 2 Port State Control. Inspection and tracking system

Annex 3 Survey checklist for Flag States

Annex 4 Survey checklist for Port States

Annex 5 Guidelines on certification and survey management system for Flag States

Annex 6 Examples of maintenance plan for fishing vessels equipment, safety appliances and fire fighting equipment

Annex 7 Guidelines on drills and training

Annex 8 Examples of certificates and record of equipment

Annex 9 Radio equipment summary table

Annex 10 Shipborne navigational equipment summary table