	extended for another period of up to 4 months or the end of the application of this Exemption, whichever date comes first. (b) For the application of all of the following requirements of Part-FCL, the time period is extended as follows: (1) to the last 32 months, in the case of all of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (i) points FCL.130.S(c) and FCL.220.S (sailplane launching methods); (ii) points (a) and (b)(1) of point FCL.140.S as well as point FCL.230.S (sailplane pilot recency); (iii) point FCL.805(e) (towing rating recency); (c) In the case of point FCL.060(c)(1), the 120-day period is extended to 180 days under the same conditions as specified in that point.
Reasons for granting exemption	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> unforeseen urgent operational circumstances The COVID-19 outbreak has resulted in drastic travel restrictions and closure of borders between a majority of States. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Holders of Part-FCL pilot licences who are required to perform their licence proficiency check (LPC) to revalidate the validity period of their class ratings, type ratings, instrument and mountain ratings are not able to safely or timely reach or gain access to aircraft or flight simulation training devices (FSTDs) to complete the necessary flights, training and checking. Additionally, these pilots are not able to timely get access to an examination for maintaining their language proficiency. This would result in expiry of their ratings and the language proficiency endorsement. • Holders of SPLs as well as of mountain ratings are not able to maintain recent experience related to their privileges. • Holders of Part-FCL instructor and examiner certificates who are required to perform an assessment of competence to revalidate their instructor or examiner privileges in order to continue to exercise their training and checking privileges are not able to safely or timely reach or gain access to aircraft or FSTDs to complete the necessary assessment of competence. This would result in expiry of said certificate. • Holders of Part-MED medical certificates who are required to undergo a recurrent medical examination to revalidate their medical certificate to continue to exercise their licence or certificate privileges are not able to timely reach or gain access to an aeromedical examiner (AME) or aeromedical centre (AeMC)

	to complete the necessary medical examination. In addition, in many cases medical examiners have been reassigned to support the COVID-19 outbreak in their State. This would result in expiry of said certificates. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Holders of aeromedical examiner certificates as per (Part-MED) to Regulation 1178/2011 who are required to perform medical examinations of the applicants for a medical certificate in order to revalidate their relevant AME privileges are not able to timely reach or gain access to their competent authorities. This would result in expiry of said certificates. • Applicants for the issue of a licence or an instrument rating are not able to safely or timely reach the competent authority to complete theoretical knowledge examinations within the time periods specified in points (a)(3) and (b)(2) of point FCL.025 of Part-FCL. • After completion of theoretical knowledge examinations, applicants for the issue of a licence or an instrument rating are not able to safely access training facilities and training aircraft or FSTDs in order continue with practical training within the time periods specified in point FCL.025(c)(1) of Part-FCL. • Applicants for a class or a type rating are not able to safely access training facilities as well as training aircraft or FSTDs in order to comply with the second subparagraph of point FCL.725(c) of Part-FCL. <input checked="" type="checkbox"/>operational needs of a limited duration Please detail: As a result of the extreme operational and resource constraints caused by the COVID-19 outbreak, it is needed to apply this exemption to holders of European licences, ratings, endorsement and certificates when the Icelandic Transport Authority is informed about the said circumstances, either by the holder of the licence, rating, endorsement or certificate or by the training organisation of the applicant(s), as applicable. This Exemption aims to reduce the severity of the disruptions and consequent negative impacts on general aviation.
Justifications of the maintained Level of Safety; Mitigating measures	A) Safety: (1) Holders of class ratings, type ratings, instrument ratings, mountain ratings or language proficiency endorsements benefiting from point (a) of this exemption (see field “Summary of the exemption”) shall comply with all of the following: (a) they shall hold a valid relevant rating and, if applicable, a valid language proficiency endorsement;

	(b) they shall, during the application period of this Exemption, have received a briefing from an examiner who holds relevant instructional privileges in order to refresh the required level of theoretical knowledge to safely operate the applicable class or type and to safely carry out the relevant manoeuvres and procedures, as applicable. That briefing shall include class – or type – specific abnormal and emergency procedures, as appropriate. (2) Upon successful completion of the briefing as per point (1)(b), the new expiry date of the relevant rating and, if applicable, the language proficiency endorsement, shall be endorsed in the licence of the pilot by the examiner acting in accordance with point FCL.1030; (3) Instructors and examiner certificate holders benefiting from point (a) of this exemption (see field “Summary of the exemption”) shall hold a valid instructor and, if applicable, a valid examiner certificate. The new expiry date of the instructor privileges shall be endorsed in the license by an examiner. The new expiry date of the examiner certificate shall be endorsed in the certificate of the examiner, either by the Icelandic Transport Authority or a senior examiner acting in accordance with point FCL.1030, as applicable. (4) Applicants for a licence, rating or certificate benefiting from point (a)(2)(vi) and (vii) of this exemption (see field “Summary of the exemption”) shall have received additional training, if deemed necessary by the ATO, in consultation with the Icelandic Transport Authority. (5) Holders of licences as per Part-FCL benefitting from point (b) or (c) of this Exemption (see field “Summary of the exemption”) shall, during the application period of this Exemption, have received a briefing from an instructor who holds relevant instructional privileges in order to refresh the required level of theoretical knowledge to safely operate the applicable aircraft and to carry out the relevant manoeuvres and procedures, as applicable. That briefing shall include specific abnormal and emergency procedures, as appropriate to the category, class and type of aircraft as well as to the relevant kind of privileges, as applicable. (6) Part-MED medical certificate holders benefitting from this exemption shall hold a valid medical certificate without limitations, except visual ones.
